"I see plants as major sculptural material for my work."

Julia Barton

Julia Barton is a sculptor and landscape artist, who lives and works in Northumberland. Recently she has focused on garden art sculpture, such as phyto-form art, which uses a combination of hard materials like metal and plastic piping with the softness of living plants.

She was the residential artist at Levens Hall for the summer of 2001. She is working on a new garden for Chaumont International garden festival in France this summer. The theme for this year's festival is Eroticism in the Garden.

Julia is available for commissioned work and residencies.
